THE ARTIST

Shyni Sudheer

Shyni Sudheer is a painter and art educator based in Tripunithura, Kerala. She holds a National Diploma in Fine Arts (Painting) and KGTE qualification. She has taught art at Chinmaya Vidyalaya, Tripunithura, since 2007, alongside her own painting practice.

Her solo exhibitions include FACT Lalithakala Kendra (1998); Darbar Hall Art Gallery, Ernakulam (2015, 2016 and 2019); Kerala Lalithakala Akademi Art Gallery, Kozhikode (2015 and 2017); and Kerala Lalithakala Akademi Art Gallery, Thrissur (2017). She has also participated in group exhibitions across Kerala.

The Warmth of Reverie

A reclining figure glows in amber and ochre against a deep blue interior, looking towards a luminous image on the wall.

The Listening Within

A blue figure sits with prayer beads on a vivid field of red and orange, surrounded by watchful leaves and a dreamlike landscape.

The White Bull and the Waiting Earth

A white bull stands between two figures in a warm ochre landscape under a rose-coloured sky.

Stillness in Blue

A meditative figure emerges through overlapping planes of azure and pale blue, encircled by a flowing rhythm of teardrop forms.

The Sea Carries a Dream

A reclining figure rests on an enormous fish among tall rock formations, beneath a cloud-filled form that merges with a shell.
